Social and Personal

THE Westmoreland Club outing to the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs for July 4, promises to be a gala event in the society set in Richmond. The White Sulphur is famous in the history of the social life of the State, and gay parties have come and gone through the vista of the years, leaving it redolent with charming memories of bygone generations of beautiful women and famous wits.

The most exclusive set will be represented, as the party will be limited to 200.

The White is lovely throughout the summer season, but never more so than now. Chaperons are already marshaling their debutantes of last winter and their debutantes of the season to come, who will have a preliminary taste of the triumphs to come in a hostelry and ballroom that possesses a greater prestige than any other in the State, or in the South for that matter. No event in Richmond society this summer will be more truly a smart set affair than the approaching outing.

At the New Country Club.

The series of handsome entertainments given at the Virginia Country Club continue to be the leading event in the society world, and the beautiful new clubhouse is filled with a fashionable gathering every afternoon and evening. At the garden fete to be given this afternoon, Mrs. Edward C. Mayo, Mrs. J. J. Leake, Mrs. Henry Lee Valentine, Mrs. George Warren, Mrs. W. C. Patterson, Mrs. Walter Hubbard, Mrs. O. H. Funsten, Miss Frances Myers, Miss Charlotte Bemis and Miss Mary Ball will receive the guests.

To Return From England.

Miss Charlie Minor, who has been spending the past winter and spring with relatives in England, is expected to return to Richmond late in July. Miss Minor left Richmond last year for the East, where she spent several months in China as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gilchrist, in Shanghai.

Spending Summer Abroad.

Miss Lucy Fitzhugh, of Lorraine, who sailed on June 2 on the steamship Panama, of the Cunard Line, has arrived in Naples. Miss Fitzhugh is making an extensive tour abroad with Miss Pattie L. Carroll, of Raleigh, N. C., and her party. They will spend most of their time on the Continent, returning to New York about the last of August.

Miss Rena Williams and Miss Bliss Williams, of Buckingham county, Va., will sail with a party of friends from Montreal on the morning of Thursday, June 23, on the Canadian Pacific line for England. They expect to visit places of interest on the Continent, and will attend the "Passion Play." The Misses Williams will not return to Virginia until some time in the late fall.

Invitations Recalled.

Owing to the death of Charles Talbot, Mrs. Abby Manly Gwathmey has recalled all invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Alberta Gwathmey, to L. Nash Palmer, which was to have taken place this evening at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist Church. The wedding will be celebrated very quietly in the parlors of the church at the time appointed in the presence of the immediate families.

House Party in Charlottesville.

There was quite an enjoyable house party last week at the home of Captain Auburn Mann, on Ridge Street, Charlottesville, the gathering being in the nature of a family reunion. The guests included five sisters of Mrs. Mann—Mrs. W. T. Wright, of Bedford City, Va.; Mrs. Thomas M. Jones, of Ashland, Va.; Mrs. W. Dan Williams, of Charlottesville, Va.; Mrs. William Charlton, of Hinton, Va.; and Mrs. John R. Quarles, of Green Springs, Va. Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Millard Pears, of Green Springs, Va., and two nieces of Mrs. Mann—Miss Elizabeth Davis, of Bedford City, Va., and Miss Kathleen Williams, of Charlottesville, Va.

A number of entertainments were given in honor of the guests.

Pretty Wedding in Albemarle.

One of the notable weddings of the past week took place at Ivy, Albemarle county, at St. Paul's Church, Thursday evening at 5 o'clock. Archdeacon F. W. Neve officiating, when Miss Lydia Learned White became the bride of John Carstairs Douglas. The pretty little church was decorated with quantities of daisies and lighted candles, and Miss Gunther, of Charlottesville, played the "Lohengrin" Wedding March at the entry of the bride party.

The bridesmaids were: John Galloway, of Ivy, Va.; William N. C. Harry, of Charlottesville; Thomas White, and the ushers and ribbon holders were Samuel and Allen White, cousin and brother of the bride. The bridesmaids, Misses Louise McGee, of Charlottesville; Miss Le-Monie, of Ivondale, Va.; Mildred Powell, of the University of Virginia, and Caroline Adams, of Rock Hill, S. C., wore frocks of white muslin with yellow ribbons and carried shower bouquets of marguerites tied with yellow tulle.

Miss May Allen White, who was the bride's maid of honor, was gowned in yellow messaline, and carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses. Robert A. King, of Wilmington, N. C., was the groom's best man.

The bride entered with her uncle, John Wood, of Spartanburg, S. C., and wore a handsome gown of ivory satin, trimmed in imported tulle and pearl embroidery. Her long tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower of white roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garrett White and granddaughter of Samuel White, of Long Branch, Albemarle county. The groom is a son of Mrs. Mary Douglas and the late Robert George Douglas, of Kirkland, Scotland, and is located in Augusta, Ga., where he will take his bride on their return from their bridal tour.

An ante-nuptial reception was tendered the bride party at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday evening and a reception, including the relatives and intimate friends, followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's uncle, John M. White. Decorations were in pink and white flowers. Visiting in Washington.

Miss Mary Joseph Gardner, who has recently graduated from Monte Maria Convent, and her friend, Miss Mary Roth, chaperoned by Miss Sally Cann, of 2208 West Grace Street, are spending some time in Washington, D. C. Later they will go on to Baltimore for several weeks.

Penick—Mullen.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Ella Mullen to Stockton Penick, the ceremony to take place on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock in the home of the bride, 2806 East Broad Street.

Shoemaker—Vest.

Miss Ella Vest, of Rockbridge county, Va., and Emmerson M. Shoemaker, of Newport News, were quietly married on Saturday in this city, the Rev. E. L. Grace, pastor of Broadus Memorial Baptist Church, performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker left at once for Washington, and on their return will be at home at 301 North Thirty-fourth Street, Richmond.

In and Out of Town.

Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Cochran, of Staunton, arrived in Richmond yesterday to attend the Gibson-Woodward wedding on Wednesday.

Mrs. C. C. Walker and Miss Rebecca Walker spent the week-end at the Chamberlin Hotel, Old Point.

Carroll H. Montague, of this city, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Barnes R. Penn at their home in Danville.

Miss Margaret Ransom, of Staunton, Va., is visiting friends in this city for several weeks.

Miss Evelyn Williams, of Norfolk, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Alexander W. Archer, at her home, 1102 West Avenue.

Mrs. James Pollard and little son will leave this week for Waynesboro, Va., to spend some time before going to Natural Bridge.

Miss L. Irvine, of the University of Virginia, is spending some time with friends in this city.

Dr. Charles Franklin, of 507 East Broad Street, has gone to London to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Cochran, of Staunton, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Minor Woodward, at the Chesterfield.

Preston Colton, of Norfolk, has returned to his home after spending the week-end with friends in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ware and little son, of Staunton, are spending some time in the city.

Mrs. S. W. Finch left Sunday to visit friends and relatives in Lynchburg and Roanoke.

Misses Eva Howle, Bessie Black, Lella Godin and Marion Gordon left last week for a six weeks' course at the University of Virginia.

Miss Louise Finch, of 1213 West Avenue, is the guest of relatives and friends in the mountains of Virginia.

Miss Lula Eames, of this city, is spending some time as the guest of Dr. W. A. Stores, at his home in Portsmouth, Va.

Dr. Gerald Essekil has gone to Ramsey Springs, Va., where he will spend the summer, returning to the city

BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB TO MOVE

New Quarters in American Bank Building Ready July 1.

MEMBERSHIP IS INCREASED

Five Directors Are Named at Annual Meeting—Elect Officers To-Day.

At the annual meeting of the Business Men's Club held yesterday in the club rooms, President Nell D. Sills presiding, the following directors were elects to serve for a term of three years each: John M. Miller, Jr., H. W. Rountree, O. J. Sands, N. D. Sills and George W. Warren. The directorate of the club is made up of 15 well-known business men, five of whose terms expire each year. The first four names are re-elections. R. S. Tuck, who has faithfully served the club for some time, declined re-election to the board, and Mr. Warren succeeds him.

In an address to the members, President Sills told of the action of the directors in leasing the top floor of the new American National Bank building for club rooms. The new quarters have been built especially for the purpose, and will more than double the floor space, providing ample dining rooms, lounging and reading rooms and other club facilities of the most modern and up-to-date character. Possession will be secured July 1, and the club will move from its present quarters between that time and July 15, probably opening in the early part of the building for the use of members about the latter date.

President Sills' Report.

The report of the board of directors submitted by President Sills shows that the club is now three years old, that it is no longer an experiment, but that its future is assured. The dining room has become a recognized meeting place for business men at the luncheon hour.

The report, quotes from expert accountants who have examined the books to show that the club has assets in excess of all liabilities, and has wiped out a debt during the year. The gain is stated not to have been in profit from the dining room, which, as a matter of fact, has shown a loss in operation each month, but the gain was from increased admission receipts and dues, together with a reduction in office expenses and curtailment of losses in the restaurant. Counting the kitchen and restaurant equipment, office and reading room furniture, and all outstanding admissions, dues, tickets and dues, the club has net assets over all liabilities of $7,000.75, an increase during the year of $2,300.75.

Since the last annual meeting the resident membership has increased from 351 to 527, and the non-resident list from 15 to 25, showing a total gain of 143. The secretary and treasurer, Edward V. Breeden, is especially commended for efficient work, much of the success of the year having been due to his efforts.

Leased New Quarters.

The report of the club has signed a lease with the American National Bank for the top floor with a specially built kitchen on the roof. The new quarters will cost $1,000, the first and second, and $5,000 for the third, fourth and fifth years. The lease expires on the present quarters July 1, 1911, and the move will be made as soon as possible thereafter. The annual rent of the new club house will increase to $2,300 a year, but it will make the club what the members have wished. The board asks the co-operation of the membership in enlarging the roll in order to meet the increased expenses of maintenance.

The newly constituted board of directors will meet in the club rooms today at 1:30 to elect officers for the coming year. President Sills will not doubt be re-elected, and the re-election of Secretary Breeden is a certainty.
